

Kings District RCMP Crime Stats and Crime Trends Monitor

For September 2024

Activity Synopsis:

Persons crimes (20) dropped significantly from both last month and last year (from 32 and 33 respectively). Assault accounted for 6 of these occurrences and accounted for the largest drop (-6 over both last month and last year). Four of these were cleared by charge/charge recommended, while one remains open, still under investigation. Two sexual offences were also reported, one of which was Cleared Otherwise with the other open/still under investigation.

Property crime dropped to 70 occurrences in September, down from 80 in August. There were three arsons reported. Mischief was the most frequent occurrence with 28 occurrences, followed by theft under $5000 with 16. Five break and enters were also reported, with one still open/under investigation and another with insufficient evidence to proceed. Three vehicles were reported stolen.

Four drug enforcement occurrences were reported (individuals using illicit drugs). Three involved information received from the public.

Traffic occurrences accounted for 218 occurrences, down from 258 in August. Impaired driving accounted for 7 occurrences. Three of these were by alcohol (one cleared by charge/charge recommended), three by drug (one cleared by charge/charge recommended and two open/still under investigation) and one was impaired by a combination of drugs and alcohol (charged). Speeding violations accounted for 61 occurrences, and other traffic offence/violations accounted for 105, down 26 from last month. There were four Checkstops documented and a single fatal collision also occurred.

Overall, 545 occurrences were recorded with 516 of these being founded or still under investigation. This is significantly lower than last month (August) with 661 occurrences, of which 642 were founded/SUI. September 2024 is also slightly higher than September 2023, when 516 occurrences, with 476 founded/SUI, were reported.
